Written especially for the new Outcomes Based Curriculum, the five parts of the African language series each contain of a Reader, a Learners Workbook, and a Teachers guide. In each series the 96-page Reader contains 15 original and exciting stories reflecting South African contexts while catering for both urban and rural settings. Delightfully illustrated in full colour, the readers include topics of particular relevance to the age group, such as losing a tooth. Workbooks in each series contain a full range of learning activities which provide an opportunity for learners to achieve all specific Outcomes for the Learning Area.
